your path to the World

Interested in pursuing a Foreign Service career in the U.S. Department of State? For more information about the 2016 Pickering Undergraduate and Graduate Fellowships, visit woodrow.org/pickering.

Funded by the U.S. Department of State and administered by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, the Pickering Undergraduate and Graduate Fellowships provide up to $37,500 annually for academic expenses, in either the first and second year of graduate study (Graduate Fellowship) or the senior year of college and first year of graduate study (Undergraduate Fellowship). The Fellowships include two paid State Department summer internships (domestic and abroad), as well as professional development through workshops, informational seminars, and mentoring by U.S. Foreign Service Officers.

Application requirements:
• Undergraduate Fellowship: College junior or equivalent; cumulative minimum 3.2 GPA on a 4.0 scale
• Graduate Fellowship: Candidate for fall 2016 admission to graduate school; cumulative minimum 3.2 GPA on a 4.0 scale
• All applicants: United States citizen

the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation